

ACCREDITED DERMATOLOGY PARTNERS WITH WESTWIND FOR NATIONAL GROWTH

Bryn Mawr, PA: February 21, 2012 --- Accredited Dermatology of New Jersey, with 30 offices throughout the state, has partnered with Westwind Investors, LP of Incline Village, NV. MT Consulting, health care merger & acquisition specialists, served as advisor to company owners throughout the transaction.

Accredited Dermatology, a platform dermatology business, founded by Dr. Rami E. Geffner, experienced tremendous growth over the last 10 years. In Westwind Investors, Dr. Geffner has a strong supporter of his vision of expansion into a nationally recognized provider of high quality dermatological services. Westwind's capital, operational and strategic expertise as well as its entrepreneurial spirit will enable Dr. Geffner and his staff to accelerate company growth.

Dr. Geffner and his wife, Patty, also a board certified dermatologist, will continue in their clinical leadership roles. Ron Geraty becomes CEO of Accredited Dermatology. Mr. Geraty, a trained physician, with tenure at New England Memorial Hospital and Harvard Medical School will lead the business side of the practice. He has held leadership roles in numerous health care businesses. Most notably, as CEO of Alere, Mr. Geraty saw revenue grow from $1.7M to $500M in just 8 years.

About Westwind Investors: The Westwind principals have a 20-year investment track record of successfully building outstanding and high growth companies. More specifically, they have invested in over 100 companies, resulting in a cumulative return of over 50% per annum, and have built seven companies that achieved valuations of greater than $1B.

About MT Consulting: The firm provides business broker and business development services to companies with sales of $5M-100M. They specialize in multi-site health care service companies and have extensive experience and proven success in the physical therapy, urgent care and O&P health care segments.
